Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Gladys Wieman, and we are richer because Gladys lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love, as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Gladys was born January 1, 1917, in Boyden, Iowa, to Christian and Evarina Rowenhorst, and she grew up in Monroe, South Dakota, and graduated from Monroe High School; and,

Whereas, Gladys married Francis Wieman on August 18, 1937, residing in Monroe, and to this union they were blessed with 5 children, 11 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Gladys resides at the Marion Assisted Care Facility in Marion, South Dakota, and will observe her 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her family and friends gather on August 13, 2016, to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 1, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many family and friends in wishing her a happy birthday.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of July in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
